

Call for applications for financial support of further education and training (special courses, training sessions, workshops, etc.)

2023

The Faculty of Forestry and Wood Sciences CZU in Prague announces a call for applications for financial support for PhD students who, after approval of their application, will be allowed to participate in a further education and training event (special short-term course, training session, workshop, etc.). On successful completion of the event, the students will have acquired skills that they can use in their studies, especially in preparing scientific outputs and writing a dissertation thesis. These can be, for example, courses focused on data processing, data analysis and modelling, statistical courses, or working in specific programs. It is also possible to support online further education and training.

Deadline for application submissions: 21 December 2022

Maximum amount of support: 35 000 CZK

Length of course, training session, workshop, etc.: not limited

The application shall be submitted in electronic form, signed by the applicant and the supervisor (at least electronically). The application form is attached to this call. The application must be sent, in PDF format, by the main researcher to: zachova@fld.czu.cz by 21 December 2022. There is no entitlement to receive support under this call.
